St Paul's Way Trust School is a highly successful Ofsted Outstanding 'Through School' and 'National Teaching School' where all of our students' matter, expectations of all the members within our community are high and personal achievement and fulfilment are valued and sought after.

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding, creative, and forward-looking Subject Leader for Geography. The post would be suitable for an experienced teacher who would like to develop their leadership skills and expertise in a well-resourced Humanities Faculty.

This is an excellent career opportunity for a colleague who is an outstanding classroom teacher, with a track record of achieving strong academic results and a compelling vision for the leadership of innovative teaching and learning. You will be leading on curriculum design and implementation within a dedicated and supportive team to ensure the highest standard of learning for our students. You will also be coaching staff on pedagogical development as part of the school's commitment to staff development.

We are looking for an individual who:

- Has a calm, professional and approachable manner to support the raising of attainment of all students in Geography
- Will help dynamically lead an enthusiastic, diligent and caring team
- Is proactive and has exceptional classroom skills

We will offer:

- An exceptional, well-resourced learning environment
- A supportive and friendly team of staff
- A forward-thinking approach to teaching and learning

Our school has developed a reputation for doing things differently and with good reason. The combination of world leading Universities and Corporate Trust partners collaborating with our talented and ambitious teachers, support staff and educational leaders has transformed provision and opened up remarkable opportunities for our young people and staff. Professor Brian Cox CBE is our Patron. We are also a National Teaching School.

If you would like to play your part in delivering outstanding provision for our students, whilst receiving the very best support to develop your career, then we would very much like to hear from you.

Please note we do not accept CVs alone.
