St Paul's Way

Education • Foundation • Trust

St Paul's Way Trust is an outstanding 'Through School' with a track record of innovation. Drawing extensively on academic research the school provides a unique curriculum experience centered on our six 'Graduate' strands. Our award-winning new building is situated in the heart of East London. Professor Brian Cox OBE is our Patron.

Our exceptional links with QMUL, King's College London, The University of Warwick, The UCL Institute of Education and the University of East London help shape an inspirational curriculum.

This is an exciting career opportunity for a colleague who is passionate about the entitlement of young people to inspiring lessons. Working within a vibrant Social Sciences and Business faculty, you will be an outstanding classroom teacher with a passionate commitment to the progress of all students in our fully comprehensive and heavily oversubscribed school.

The successful candidate will have an unwavering belief in the potential of every student and support them in improving their life chances. They will do what it takes to ensure that students achieve their best, and will inspire curiosity and enthusiasm for the subject, which motivates students. The successful candidate will teach Citizenship at Key Stages 3-4, and Government and Politics at Key Stage 5.

This post would be suitable for a newly qualified teacher or a more experienced colleague. The school has a comprehensive ECT induction programme and numerous CPD opportunities.

If you would like to play your part in delivering outstanding provision, whilst receiving the very best support to develop your career, then we would very much like to hear from you.
